TYPES OF DATA TREATED

Surfing Data

The informative systems and the software procedure responsible for the functioning of this website acquire in time some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of communication protocols of the internet. This information has not been collected to be associated with identifiable parties, who for their own nature might be able, through elaboration and associations with third party data, identify users. In this class of data there are IP addresses or the names of computer domains used by the user connecting to the website, the addresses in URI notation (Uniform Resource Identifier) of the resources requested, the time of the request, the method used in submitting the request to the server, the dimension of the file obtained in response, the numeric code indicating the state of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters regarding the operating system and the cyber environment of the user. This data is used solely to obtain anonymous statistical information on the use of the website and to control the correct functioning. The data could be used to certify responsibility in the case of hypothetical cyber crime damaging the website upon request of the authorities responsible.

Data supplied voluntarily by the user

The optional dispatch, explicit and voluntary, of e-mail to the addresses indicated on this website involves the subsequent acquisition of the e-mail address of the sender which is necessary to respond to the request as well as other possible personal entered in the message.

COOKIES

No personal data of the users is purposely acquired by the website. No cookies are used to send personal information, nor are persistent cookies used or systems for tracing users. The use of c.d. session cookies (which are not memorized in a persistent manner by the computer of the user and vanish when the browser is closed) is strictly limited to the transmission of session identification (made up of casual numbers generated by the server) necessary to consent the safe and efficient exploration of the website. The c.d. session cookies used in this site help to avoid resorting to other information techniques potentially prejudicial for the privacy of user surfing and does not allow the acquisition of personal identity data of the user.

OPTIONAL CONFERMENT DATA

Besides what has been specified for the surfing data, the user is free to supply the personal data reported in the request forms to Botalla srl or what is indicated in the contacts to request informative material or other communications. If the data is not entered, it might be impossible to obtain what has been requested.

THE PART CONCERNING MINORS

No person under the age of 18, without parental consent, will be able to send information to this website, nor will they be able to make purchases or perfect legal acts through this site without prior consent, unless it is permitted by the law.

MEANS OF DATA TREATMENT

Personal data is treated automatically by instruments only for the time necessary to allow the scopes for which the data has been collected. Specific safety measures are observed to prevent the loss of data, illicit or incorrect use and unauthorized access.

RIGHTS OF INTERESTED PARTIES

The parties to which the personal data refers have the right at any time to obtain confirmation of the existence or not of this data and to know its content and origin, verify its accuracy or request integration, update or correction (art.7 of legislative decree n° 196/2003). According to the same article the party has the right to request cancellation, transformation to an anonymous form or block the data in the case of violation of the law.
